

GT60 Go Everywhere

The GT60 is a device that can be used as an emergency cellular phone and allows speed dialing of 3 numbers for 2 way voice communication. It will call any pre-defined number for immediate assistance. The device work with voice wiretapping function and control center can trigger voice wiretapping when anything urgent. With build-in motion sensor,GT60 can keep working for more than 2 days after fully charge. Its compact size, high accuracy and easy using design make it a good choice for personal location device.

GSM / GPRS

Global Positioning System

Real-time dynamic reporting based on time intervals or distance driving

Phone

Speed dial numbers to allow two-way voice communication

SOSRelief

Panic button to call the Board

Over speed Alert

GeoFence

Personal Geography network capability, and input / output report

Voice wiretapping

Motion sensor

Movement alarm and power management

Features:

- Built-in personal locator.
- High sensitivity, new technology and latest GPS SiRF-Star III chipset!
- Support single location and continuous tracking
- Support location triggered by authorized cell phone
- Support quick dialing buttons for 3 preset phone numbers
- Locate the locator holder by the mobile phone via SMS (SMS system).
- Geo-fencing to restrict movement to a defined radius.
- Build-in speak and microphone headset for hand free
- Works with Support 3-frequency GSM 900/1800/1900 MHZ
- Compact size, and smaller than one name card. Easy to hide,
- Support location triggered by tracker
- Support alarm and remote monitor
- Support check location by SMS and GPRS
- SOS button send out exact location for immediate rescue/action.
- Build-in motion sensor for lower power consumption
- Removable build-in battery